WASHINGTON, D. C., MARCH 22, 1881. A BUSSER.

BY REV. DR. PATRAN. Twas on a cheerless, icy day,
The wind was wintry cold,
That we chanced to meet on a bleak side street A dominic man grown old. His clothes were patched, his head unthatched,

And his trowsers out at the knee, And we heard this man proceed to scan This strange soliloquy: "Oh! I bussed the widows and I bussed the wives And I bussed the damsels free, And I bussed young jades and I bussed old maids, Till the practice busted me." And he pranced around and ripped and tore Like a maniac inspired, fill we seized by the neck this pious wreck And timidly inquired:

"Oh! dominie man, will you explain These wondrous things you tell? Expound to us how you could buss So much and do it well!"

Then he settled down and scratched his head In a meditative way,
Till he thought he'd quite got his story right
And then went on to say:

"I used to think, when I started in, That a preacher had a call To buss around on ballowed ground, According to St. Paul.

· So I bussed the widows and I bussed the wives, And I bussed the damsels free.

And I bussed young jades and I bussed old maids, Till the practice busted me. *1 went round from church to church

For forty years about, And never missed a single sister, Till the deacons fired me out. "Then I'd try again and get a job, But again I'd have to hop: A scriptural buss would make more fuss

Than a mule in a crockery shop. "In vain I preached the apostles' creed, And showed how wise was he, But the holy salute always fetched a boot, And I got the grand G. B.

But it is the sisters' singular view That my understanding melts: They didn't mind till the undersigned Got kissing some one else.

 Then they'd squawk and shiver, and raise a row, And howl and carry on, Though Γd kiss them all, big, medium, and small. from Genesis to John. +So I quit the business, and I preach no more, Not neither sing nor pray; But I am to be found a sitting around Remarking by the way: And I bussed the damsels free, and I bussed young jades and I bussed old maids, Till the practice busted me!" POTATOES, three inches longer than the dress, -"How does painting agree with my daughter?" asked an anxious parent. "It makes her too red in the face," replied the teacher. -- Venice is the richest city in Italy--it is almost free from debt. And with all those canals, too? The Venetian aldermen and State legislators are fearfully behind the age. -Dumas fils-Two things make me love this life, love and liberty, the only treasures I erave. For love, if necessary, I would give life, but for liberty I would give love.

-An ex-prize-fighter is postmaster in an Lastern town. His old fighting nature is still in him, and hardly a day passes that he does not lick an innocent little postage-stamp. A Galveston woman, just married, wishing to impress ber husband with her ability as a housekeeper, bawled out to the servant as she entered the door, "Matildy, bring me the wash-board; I want to wash the potatoes for dinner." They Don't.

"Why do women so often wander aimlessly in the murky solitudes of the dead past, brooding over the days that are forever gone?" asked a young lady of her practical lover, who is a widower. "They don't," he replied; "on the contrary, they wander around the dry-goods stores of the present, pricing things they have no idea of buying. Women are not dreamy or poetical, but when it comes to getting a $2 bustle for $1.80 they keep right up with the procession."

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL NEWS.

Wall Street Transactions-The Latest Quotations in Stocks and Bonds-New York and Baltimore Produce Markets-London and Paris Money Markets.

The following observations on the transactions in the financial market yesterday, together with opening, highest, lowest, and closing quotations, are furnished by the banking-house of H. D. Cooke, jr., & Co., 1429 F street, Washington, D. C.: The market opened flat this morning. During the first hour prices were stiff and even advanced some.

Soon, however, the complexion of affairs changed, and the entire list has declined systematically to the close, at which time there is visible a fall of 1/4 to 4 per cent., the latter Northern Pacific. The only exceptions to the "slope" have been Nashville and Chattanooga, Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, Morris and Essex, and St. Louis, Alton and Terre Haute. All of these closed where they opened. Nashville and Chattanooga had advanced 1% per cent, during the day, but lost it on the second board. The drop in Northern Pacific was caused by a reported rupture with its Oregon connections, and also by a "spilling out" of some at the pool. Aside from these depressing reports, which affect this stock alone, there has been no influence to break the market to-day other than a general mistrust in prices. The decline seems to us to be simply a natural reaction, a seeking of proper level, such as foreshadowed in our recent letters. To-day at halfpast one another heavy snow-storm commenced in Chicago and throughout the Northwest, At time of writing the storm still prevails. This does not look very encouraging for large freights, A rumor has found its way upon "the street" that the Treasury Department intended selling some of the four per cents (authorized but unissued), and with the proceeds therefrom taking up $10,00,000 of the fives and sixes of '81. It seems apparent that such an action as this is hardly likely to occur. In the first place it would be at direct variance with the late sen-timents of Congress in the funding bill question for the Department to sell the fours at all. It will be remembered that the bill as it passed both Houses authorized the issue of a 3 per cent. bond, which the Government reserved the right to call in after five years. It is hardly likely that the Department would sell a 4 per cent, bond having twentysix years to run in the face of this late action of Congress, so antipodal in its spirit and expression. More than this: Even if the fours were sold, the proceeds could not legally be applied to redemption of fives and sixes of '81 until the time when such bonds mature. The only funds which can be rightfully used for the purchase of these bonds at the time being are the surplus revenues, which are not adequate at present. It is probable that no action will be taken in the matter until the question of an extra session is defi-nitely settled. If we are to have another session, the question of refunding will certainly be the incentive for and the main feature of the session. A definite decision will be reached and the financial policy well "Oh! I bussed the widows and I bussed the wives, defined. From all indications the "extra session" seems very probable. It is difficult to say what will its precise effect on the stock market. It is possible that the fear of financial "tinkering" on the part of Congress may have a depressing effect at first, but should a refunding bill be passed, establishing a fair rate of interest, say 3½ per cent., it is equally possible -Arkansas has the best hot-watering that the market may be stimulated and advance temporarily without regard to intrinsic merit.

In this new combination we have blended together by distillation (which cannot be effectually done in any other way) the Balsam, Tolu, Rock Candy, Pure Old Rye Whisky, and a Valuable Tonic, which preserves all the virtues of the ingredients, yielding valuable expectorant qualities, and giving the article a fine flavor and an agreeable taste. Balsam Tolu has long been used by the medical profession for its soothing, healing, and nourishing properties in allaying any irritation of the throat, chest, and lungs. Tolu Rock and Rye is a diffusive stimulant, creating a healthy appetite and toning up the system generally. The eminent chemist, Prof. G. A.
